

FRIDTJOF NANSENS INSTITUTT
FRIDTJOF NANSEN INSTITUTE

Adaptation seminar Tallinn

Tor Håkon Inderberg

Tallinn,
3rd March 2015

The two days

- Main goal: Develop knowledge and understanding of adaptation to climate change
  - Some background
  - Related conceptual discussions
  - Adaptation terminology
  - Global; Regional; National; and the local level;
- Use examples from the Nordic countries and some sectors
  - Framework conditions
  - Adaptive Capacity
  - Adaptation practices

The Programme Day 1

Tuesday , 3rd of March

Time
09:30-10:00	Arrival of participants, registration, coffee	Kerli Kirsimaa
10:00-10:15	Introduction to the project and training course	Valdur Lahtvee
10:15-10:30	Goals and structure for the two day seminar	Tor Håkon Inderberg
10:30-11:15	Climate Change Impacts, Adaptation, Vulnerability and Adaptive Capacity at the Global Level: IPCC and Science Meets Practice	Tor Håkon Inderberg
11:15-12:00	Climate Impacts and Vulnerability in Norway	Tor Håkon Inderberg
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-13:45	The Norwegian Climate Change Adaptation Policy: responsibilities and trade-offs in the national organization of adaptation	Tor Håkon Inderberg
14:45-15:30	Estonian Climate Change Adaptation: Responsibilities and practices in Estonia	Valdur Lahtvee
15:30-15.45	Coffee
15:45-16:30	Adaptation Governance - Local Authorities Bridging the Gap Between Top-Down and Bottom-Up Signals	Trude Raudken
16:30-16:50	Sum up of day one	Valdur Lahtvee

Programme Day 2

Wednesday, 4th of March

Time	Activity	Responsible
09:00-09:45	EU Adaptation Frameworks and Institutional Interplay in the Baltic Region	Sirkku Juhola
10:00-10:45	Climate Change Adaptation in Urban Planning in Norway	Knut Bjørn Stokke
10:45-11:30	Adaptation Policy in the Norwegian Electricity Sector and comparison with Sweden: adaptation examples from grid companies	Tor Håkon Inderberg
11:30-11:45	Coffee
11:45-12:30	Swedish and Finnish adaptation policies. Examples from urban adaptation in Helsinki	Sirkku Juhola
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Group work : mapping climate risks	Valdur Lahtvee
15:00-15:45	The role of private-public-partnerships and networks in CC adaptation	Trude Rauken
15:45-16:00	Summing up course, end of course	Valdur Lahtvee